salvation

If you would like to accept Christ as your Lord and Savior, one of our staff or elders would love to talk with you. You can either come forward during invitation or speak to a staff member. In the event that you have already made this decision, and you wish to unite with this congregation, you may do so by coming forward during invitation.

communion

We celebrate the Lord's Supper each week as we believe the early Church did (Acts 20:7). We do not make judgments about who should and should not join. Each person should "examine" themselves (2 Corinthians 13:5). Once this examination is made, a person may participate.

offering

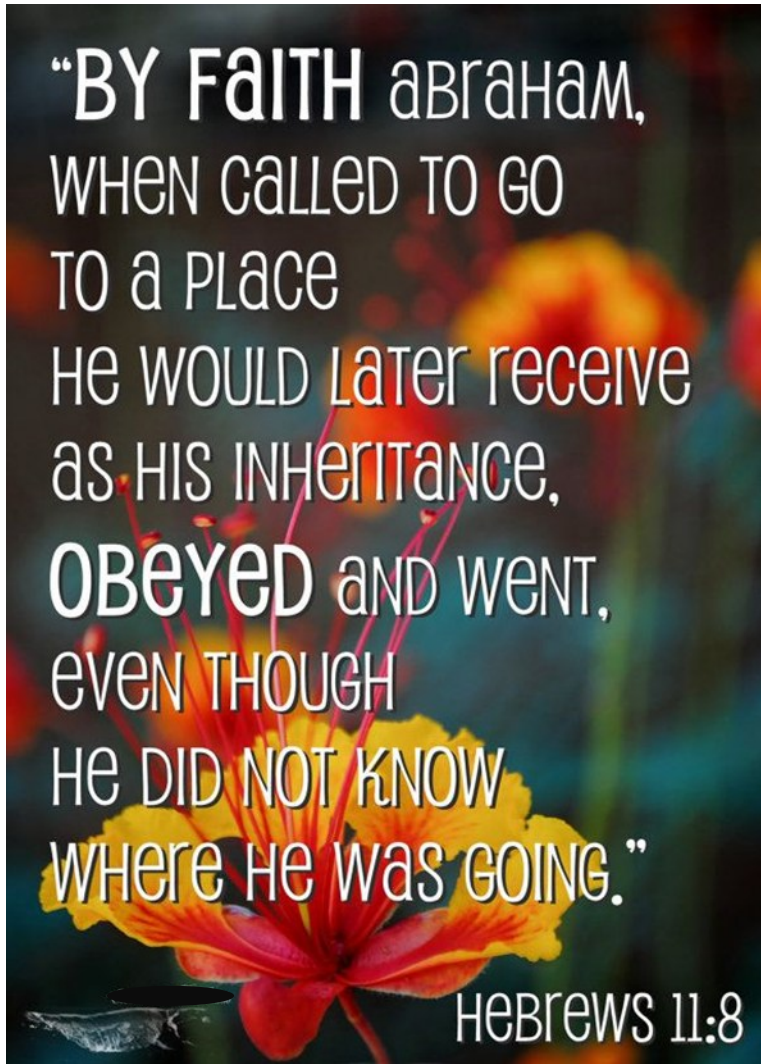

An offering is an opportunity for those who have submitted themselves to Christ as Lord to support the Lord's work, both here and around the world. There are several ways to give. You may place your offering in in the Offering Box on the wall near the cafe, at the electronic giving stand in the lobby, or online at fccnewsalem.com/give

Sermon Challenges

MONDAY
READ Genesis 22:1-2
“God tested Abraham...” Tests can feel like silence. Like delay. Like God is holding something back. But Scripture is clear (this was not punishment). It was preparation. God wasn't ignoring Abraham. He was shaping him. When life feels uncertain, it doesn't mean God has stepped away. It may mean He is strengthening your faith for what's ahead. Ask God today: “What are You teaching me in this season?” Listen instead of rushing past the moment.

TUESDAY
READ Hebrews 11:8
“By faith Abraham... went, even though he did not know where he was going.” Faith rarely comes with full details. Abraham moved forward without knowing how everything would unfold. God often gives enough direction for the next step, not the whole journey. Trust grows when we move forward without having everything figured out. Take one step of obedience today, even if you don't have all the answers.

WEDNESDAY
READ Genesis 22:6
“Abraham took the wood... and placed it on his son Isaac...” Abraham carried the weight of obedience without fully understanding the outcome. Sometimes following God means holding tension (trusting Him while not fully understanding Him). Faith is not the absence of questions. It is obedience in the middle of them. Surrender one question or uncertainty to God today instead of trying to solve it yourself.

THURSDAY
READ Romans 4:19
“Without weakening in his faith...” Abraham faced circumstances that didn't make sense, yet his faith didn't collapse. Real faith isn't built when everything aligns. It's built when nothing does, and we still trust God. God's promises are not limited by your circumstances. When doubt creeps in today, remind yourself of one promise from God and hold onto it.

FRIDAY
READ Genesis 22:13-14
“God will provide...” At the moment Abraham needed it most, God provided. Not early. Not late. Right on time. God doesn't give tests without provision. He equips us for every step He calls us to take. What you need may not be visible yet, but God already knows. Thank God in advance today for providing what you need, even if you don't see it yet.

SATURDAY
READ Hebrews 11:19
“Abraham reasoned that God could even raise the dead...” Abraham's faith reached a point where he trusted God beyond the situation in front of him. He believed God's power was greater than what he could see. That's the shift. He moved from being gripped by fear to living for God's glory. When we trust Him fully, even the hardest moments become places where His faithfulness is revealed.
Pray this today: “God, help me trust You more than I fear the outcome.”

TRUTH TO CARRY WITH YOU
GOD IS NOT HOLDING YOU BACK. HE IS PREPARING YOU. AND EVERYTHING YOU NEED FOR THE NEXT STEP WILL BE THERE WHEN YOU TAKE IT.
