- Please avoid moving around during the worship experience

salvation

If you would like to accept Christ as your Lord and Savior, one of our staff or elders would love to talk with you. You can either come forward during invitation or speak to a staff member. In the event that you have already made this decision, and you wish to unite with this congregation, you may do so by coming forward during invitation.

communion

We celebrate the Lord's Supper each week as we believe the early Church did (Acts 20:7). We do not make judgments about who should and should not join. Each person should "examine" themselves (2 Corinthians 13:5). Once this examination is made, a person may participate.

offering

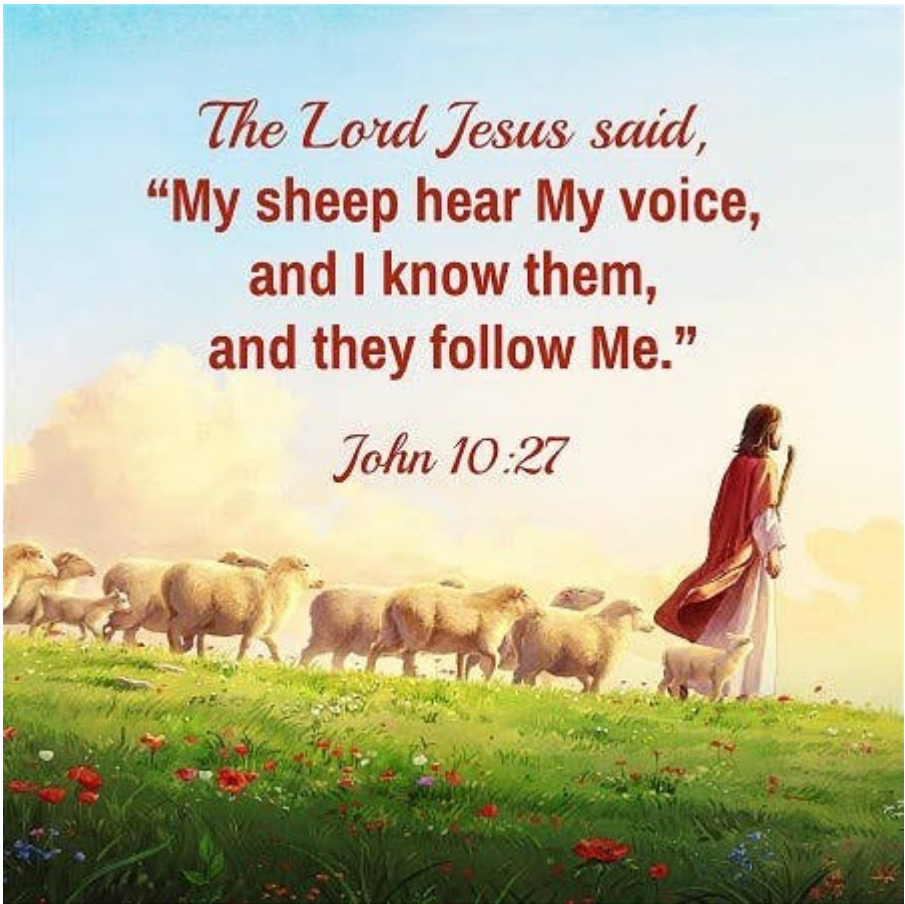

An offering is an opportunity for those who have submitted themselves to Christ as Lord to support the Lord's work, both here and around the world. There are several ways to give. You may place your offering in in the Offering Box on the wall near the cafe, at the electronic giving stand in the lobby, or online at fccnewsalem.com/give

Sermon Challenges

READ Matthew 4:18
Jesus found Peter and Andrew while they were fishing. Nothing dramatic was happening. They were working, casting nets, living an ordinary day. That is often where Jesus meets us too. Not only in church services or emotional moments, but in the routines of everyday life. He steps into our schedules, responsibilities, and ordinary places with a life-changing invitation. Following Jesus begins when we recognize that He is calling us right where we are. Look for Jesus in one ordinary part of your day. Ask Him to lead you there.

TUESDAY
READ Matthew 4:19
Jesus did not simply give Peter and Andrew information. He gave them an invitation. Christianity is more than knowing about Jesus. It is walking with Him, listening to Him, and letting Him lead. The invitation is still personal. Jesus knows your past, your failures, your fears, and your questions. And still He says, “Follow Me.” Pray today: “Jesus, help me move from knowing about You to truly following You.”

WEDNESDAY
“At once they left their nets and followed him.”
The nets represented security, routine, and control. To follow Jesus, the disciples had to leave something behind. We may not have literal fishing nets, but we all have things that can hold us back. Fear. Bitterness. Sin. Approval. Comfort. The belief that we know best. Following Jesus always requires surrender. Name one “net” you need to leave behind. Ask God for the courage to release it.

TRUTH TO CARRY WITH YOU
JESUS DOES NOT SIMPLY INVITE US TO ADMIRE HIM.
HE CALLS US TO FOLLOW HIM.
AND WHEN WE SAY YES,
HE CHANGES THE DIRECTION OF OUR LIVES.

THURSDAY
READ Matthew 4:19
“I will make you fishers of people.”
Jesus did not say, “Make yourself better first.” He said, “I will make you.” That is grace. The disciples came as fishermen, but Jesus transformed them into witnesses, leaders, servants, and disciple-makers. Jesus never calls us to stay the same. When we follow Him, He reshapes our hearts, our priorities, and our purpose. Ask Jesus to shape one area of your character today so it reflects Him more clearly.

FRIDAY
READ John 10:27
“My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.”
We cannot follow a voice we are not listening to. The world is loud. Our desires are loud. Fear, pressure, and distraction are loud. But Jesus calls His people to recognize His voice. That is why Scripture, prayer, worship, and Christian community matter. They help tune our hearts to the Shepherd. Spend a few quiet minutes in Scripture today and ask, “Jesus, what are You saying to me?”

SATURDAY
READ Matthew 4:22
James and John did not know everything the journey would hold. They simply took the next step. Following Jesus does not mean we see the whole road. It means we trust the One who calls us. Every journey with Jesus begins with one step, and that step has the power to change everything. Take one clear step of obedience today. Don’t wait for perfect conditions. Follow Him now.
