salvation

If you would like to accept Christ as your Lord and Savior, one of our staff or elders would love to talk with you. You can either come forward during invitation or speak to a staff member. In the event that you have already made this decision, and you wish to unite with this congregation, you may do so by coming forward during invitation.

communion

We celebrate the Lord's Supper each week as we believe the early Church did (Acts 20:7). We do not make judgments about who should and should not join. Each person should "examine" themselves (2 Corinthians 13:5). Once this examination is made, a person may participate.

offering

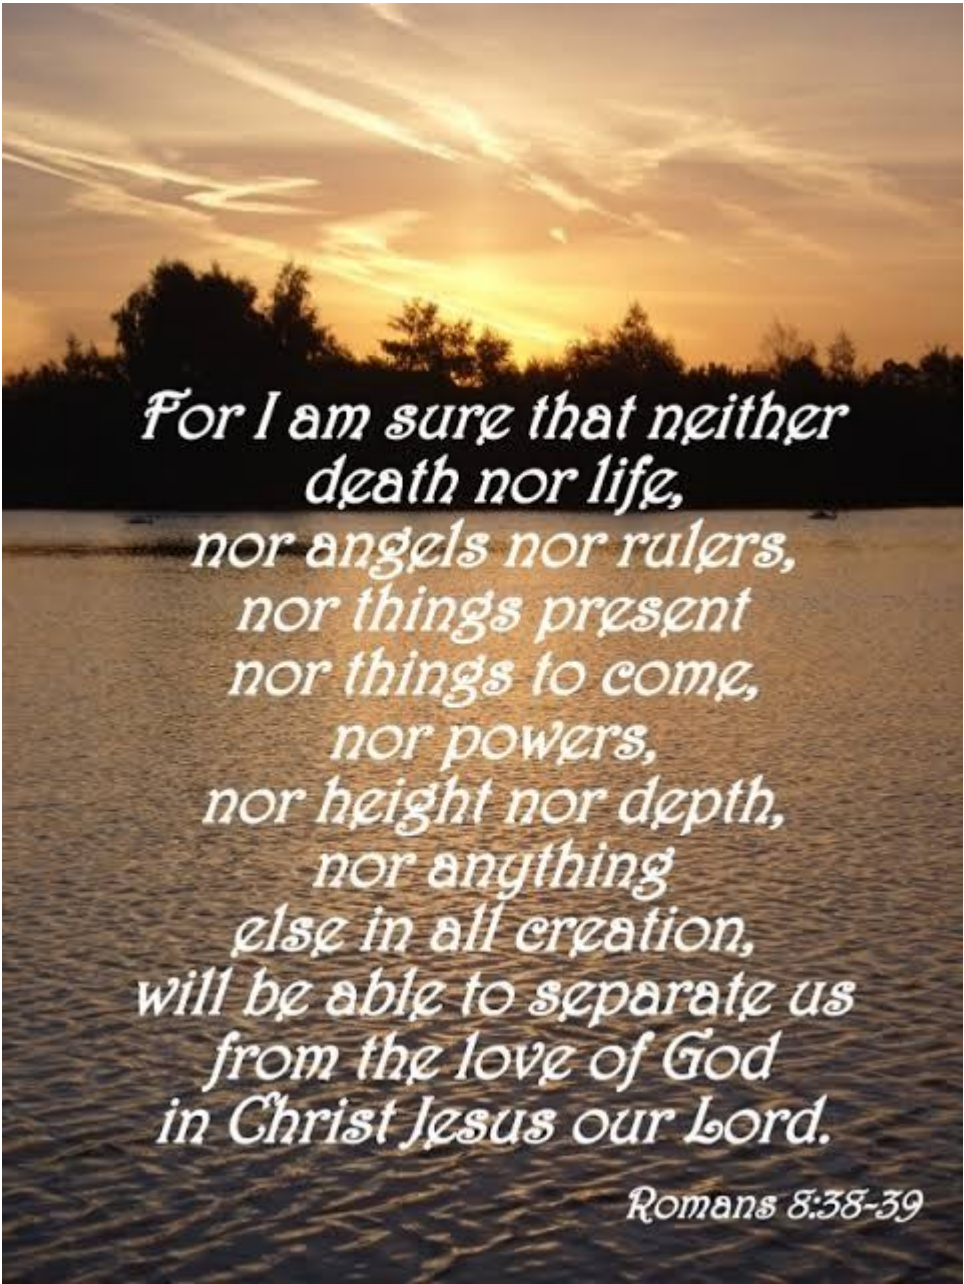

An offering is an opportunity for those who have submitted themselves to Christ as Lord to support the Lord's work, both here and around the world. There are several ways to give. You may place your offering in in the Offering Box on the wall near the cafe, at the electronic giving stand in the lobby, or online at fccnewsalem.com/give

Sermon Challenges

MONDAY
READ Exodus 3:4
Moses was in the wilderness, doing ordinary work, carrying the weight of his past. Yet God met him there. Sometimes we assume God waits until we are more prepared, more confident, or more qualified. But God often calls people right in the middle of ordinary life. He does not begin with what we lack. He begins with His presence. You may not feel ready, but God is already near. Pause today and ask, “God, where are You trying to get my attention?”

TUESDAY
READ Exodus 4:1
Moses immediately imagined what could go wrong. What if they reject me? What if I fail? What if I am not enough? Fear often lives in “what if.” It pulls us into imagined failure before we ever take a step of obedience. But God does not ask Moses to solve every possible outcome. He asks him to trust and obey. Faith does not mean every fear disappears. It means fear no longer gets to lead. Write down one “what if” fear you’ve been carrying. Then pray, “Lord, help me trust You with what is.”

WEDNESDAY
READ Exodus 4:2
God didn’t ask Moses what he wished he had. He asked what was already in his hand. A staff seemed ordinary, but surrendered to God, it became a sign of His power. We often overlook what God has already given us because we are focused on what we think we lack. But obedience usually begins with what is already present: your story, your gifts, your relationships, your influence, your availability. God can use what you already have when you place it in His hands. Identify one thing God has already placed in your life and ask how you can use it faithfully today.

TRUTH TO CARRY WITH YOU
GOD HAS ALREADY PLACED SOMETHING IN YOUR HANDS.
HE HAS ALREADY PROMISED HIS PRESENCE.
AND HE WILL PROVIDE WHAT YOU NEED –
AS YOU WALK IN OBEDIENCE.

THURSDAY
READ Numbers 13:31-33
The spies saw the land God promised, but fear made the giants look bigger than God. Their problem wasn’t what they saw, but what they forgot. Fear causes us to measure ourselves against the obstacle instead of measuring the obstacle against God. When we forget who God is, we begin to forget who we are. God did not call Israel because they were strong enough. He called them because He was faithful enough. Name one “giant” in your life and speak this truth over it: “God is greater than what I am facing.”

FRIDAY
READ Exodus 3:12
Moses wanted answers, but God gave him His presence. He did not explain every detail or remove every fear. He simply promised, “I will be with you.” God often gives enough light for the next step, not the whole path. You are not enough because you have every answer. You are enough because God goes with you. Take one faithful step today without waiting for full certainty.

SATURDAY
READ Romans 8:38-39
The courage to follow God does not come from believing life will be easy. It comes from knowing we are held by a love that cannot be broken. Failure cannot separate you. Fear cannot separate you. Uncertainty cannot separate you. The assignment ahead of you may feel bigger than you, but it is not bigger than the love and power of Christ. God is not asking you to live trapped by “what if.” He is inviting you to trust Him with “what is.” Pray this today: “Lord, I trust You with what is. Use what You have already placed in my hands.”
